Rule No. 10

POINT OF DELIVERY AND SERVICE INTERRUPTIONS

- 10.1 Company reserves the right to designate the point at which gas is delivered to the customer (hereinafter called "Point of Delivery") which, unless otherwise designated will be at the meter outlet on customer's premises.
- 10.2 Company shall use all reasonable diligence in providing regular and uninterrupted supply of gas, but in case the supply of gas shall fail or be interrupted, or become defective through an act of God, or the public enemy, or state, municipal, or other public authority, through failure of supply, or be caused by accident, strikes, or labor troubles, or any other cause beyond reasonable control of the Company, the Company shall not be liable therefore.
- 10.3 Company reserves the right, at any and all times, to discontinue immediately, in whole or in part, the supply of gas to any consumer, when, in the opinion of the Company, it is necessary to effect curtailment to insure adequate service to the greatest majority of its consumers.
